

Metadata sheet

Title:

The Fables of Aesop (The Ethiop): Educator Companion

Author:

Paul Crooks

Publisher:

Paul Crooks Publications

Library & Institutional Edition Prepared: 2025

Original Publication: 2017

Format:

Digital resource (PDF/eBook)

Page Count:

Approximately 45 pages

Audience:

Educators, teachers, librarians, community facilitators, homeschoolers

Recommended Age Range:

10+

Subject Keywords:

Fables – Study and teaching; Multicultural education; Storytelling – Educational use; Children’s literature – Instructional materials; Literature-based instruction; Moral education – Teaching resources

Description:

This educator guide supports classroom and community use of The Fables of Aesop (The Ethiop)—a culturally grounded retelling of classic animal fables with African and Caribbean roots. Designed for teachers, librarians, and facilitators, the companion offers theme-based teaching support, discussion questions, and creative activities. Each entry includes summaries, reflection prompts, and cultural context, helping learners explore moral insights and storytelling traditions. Ideal for language arts, literacy enrichment, and multicultural education.

Key Features:

- Introduction exploring the African heritage of Aesop’s fables
- 5 major themes with cultural background
- 20+ sample fables with summaries and discussion questions
- Creative extension activities (writing, drama, visual art)
- Cultural reflections and proverbs to inspire deeper engagement

Learn more at paulcrooks.info

ISBN:

978-1-0682348-6-6

Price:

£2

Availability:

Direct download from www.paulcrooks.info

Available via IngramSpark, OverDrive, and participating library distributors

Contact:

Paul Crooks Publications

Email: info@paulcrooksuk.info

Website: www.paulcrooks.info

Notes for Librarians and Educators:

This guide is an adaptable teaching companion that can be used alongside The Fables of Aesop (The Ethiop) or as a stand-alone educational resource. Suitable for ages 10+ and cross-curricular applications.